Arizona Concern, Water Association Negotiate Thursday

An effort will be made to increase the rainfall over Medina Lake by the use of scientific rain-making instruments, it was decided at a meeting of the Guadalupe-Medina Flood Water

Reclamation Association in San Antonio Wednesday night.

The association authorized negotiations with The Precipitation Control Company of Phoenix, Ariz., and a meeting was scheduled between the group and E. C. Barnes, president of the company, for 1:45 P. M. Thursday afternoon, Sept. 7.

Scientific rain-making has been tried in numerous sections of the nation, the most widely-publicized in New York recently. The company believes that they can at least double the rainfall, thereby giving additional water for Medina Lake as well as for the area irrigated by the water from the Lake and the Medina Watershed.

The company which will negotiate with the association claims to have increased rainfall in the arid districts of California, Arizona and New Mexico, and were recently engaged to aid in filling the dry reservoir supplying New York City water.

Appeals Court Rules Wednesday On Castro Case

A ruling will be made next Wednesday by the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals on the appeal by Jordan T. Lawler et al concerning a recent decision by District Judge Roger Thurmond in which he sustained the right of the Castroville Rural High School District board of trustees to act without being bound by actions of the previous board.

Lawler and others are asking that the Fourth Court of Appeals reverse Judge Thurmond and render a decision in the case. Originally, the plaintiffs sought to mandamus the board, contractor and architect to resume construction of the new school on the site in Castroville.

The court heard arguments Wednesday morning and took the case under advisement until next Wednesday. Lawler was represented by William Remy, George Wiggins and Joe Briscoe. The Castroville trustees were represented by C. Boatright and B. A. Greathouse.

Present at the hearing were Lawler, Sgt. Barron, J. Fletcher, Josie Bader, Tommy Frey, George Boehme, Archie Schuchart, Cornelius Schott and Ed Seekatz.

News About Medina County Servicemen

MOORE BAPTIST CHURCH TO HOLD DEDICATION

The Moore Baptist Church will be dedicated Sunday, Sept. 10, at 11 a.m. with Rev. Hal C. Wingo conducting the services.

A homecoming will be held in connection with the dedication, and dinner will be served on the church grounds. Rev. Bruce Roberts, pioneer Baptist minister and author of Uvalde, will lead in prayer.

Local Guard Company Named Regiment's Best

Members of the Heavy Mortar Co., 141st Infantry Regiment, returned this week from summer training at North Fort Hood. At the camp, the Hondo company was named the second best for the entire year in the regiment, and missed receiving a beautiful gold trophy by just three points.

According to the company commander, Richard E. Schneider, the local unit missed being named the best company for the year because the organization had such low strength at the last federal inspection in February. The Hondo company was named the best in the 141st Regiment for their work at camp.

Capt. Schneider praised the officers and men of the company for their efforts and devotion to duty, and stated that "Hondo can be proud of the men in the local unit for the outstanding duty they performed while at Fort Hood."

Five of the men qualified as expert gunner during the mortar gunner's test. They were Rec. Billy C. Smith, Sgt. Thomas Timmerman, Sgt. Juan Sandoval, Pvt. Sidney Billings, and Pvt. Theophilus Loring. Cpl. Clifton Hannes qualified as gunner first class.

Rev. D. D. Hogan

The annual revival meeting at the New Fountain Methodist Church will begin Sunday morning, according to the pastor, Rev. Walter L. Froehner.

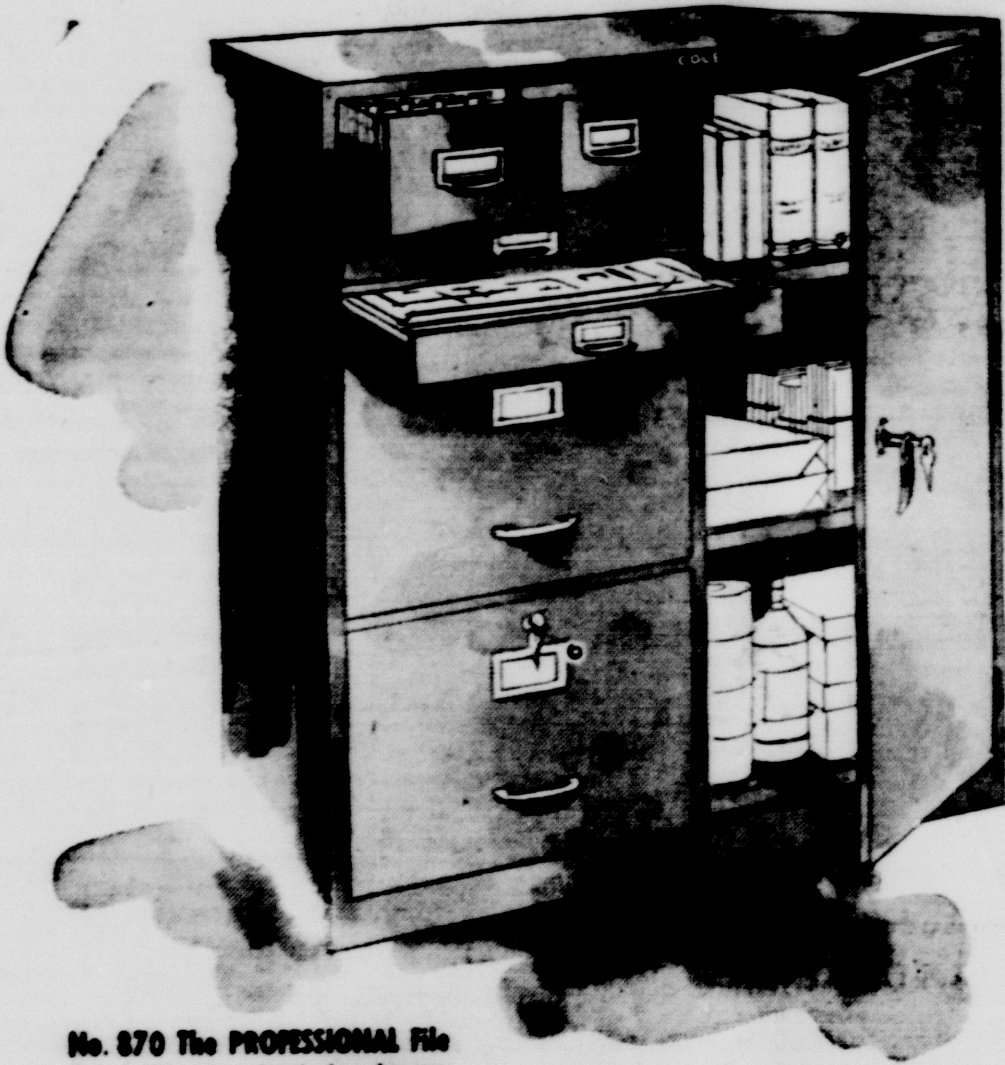

Rev. D. D. Hogan, pastor of the Yancey Methodist Church, will preach every night starting with the Sunday evening service and continuing through the following Sunday. Rev. Hogan has been successful in conducting revival services in various churches, and his forceful yet appealing messages are always well-received by the people, Rev. Froehner says.

A feature in connection with these special evangelistic services will be messages by the choir and congregational singing under the direction of the minister.

The entire congregation joins its minister in extending an invitation to persons from neighboring churches and communities to attend the services, Rev. Froehner said.

THURSDAY NIGHT CLUB MEETS AT JONES' HOME

The Thursday Night Bridge Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Ralph Jones.

Mrs. Jerome Finger had high score, Mrs. Jerome Zinsmeyer, second high, and Mrs. N. J. Knopp, third high. Mrs. Zaden Lee was guest.

Refreshments consisted of chicken salad sandwiches, olives, potato chips, fudge squares, and iced tea.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Knopp.

TO PRESENT RECITAL WEDNESDAY EVENING

Hondo dance students will be presented in a fall recital Wednesday evening, Sept. 13, at the high school auditorium.

Pupils taking part will be Glenetta Faye Saathoff, Cynthia Gaudin, Carol Ann Meyer, Gaye Tilley, Thelma Short, Evelyn Amberson, Nancy Burch, Margaret Lynn Meyer, Judy Nester, Joylene Tilley, and Patricia Loessberg.

The recital is given by Fulen-der Studio.

Recent Bride Honored Tuesday At Rio Medina

RIO MEDINA — Mrs. Roy Bendele was honored with a miscellaneous shower on Tuesday night, Aug. 30 at the Rio Medina School. Mrs. Clyde Bendele registered approximately thirty guests in the bride's book.

After the bride's arrival, buncos was played and entrance prizes were awarded. Refreshments of ice cream, dark and light cake, mints and fruit iced tea were served by the hostesses. Mrs. Bendele was then escorted to a table covered with gifts where Miss Annetta Haby assisted her in opening and displaying the gifts she received.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Leo Mangold, Mrs. Philip Haby, Mrs. Gabe Haby, Mrs. Ralph Beck, Mrs. F. G. Carle, Mrs. Spettel Bendele, Mrs. Clyde Bendele, Mrs. H. A. Wurzbach, Mrs. T. W. Cannon, Mrs. Russell Haby, Misses Inell Beck and Annetta Haby.

Mrs. Bendele, the former Mary Elizabeth Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urbaneck of San Antonio and Cpl. Roy Bendele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bendele of Rio Medina, were married Aug. 5 at 9 A. M. in Chapel No. 2, at Lackland Air Force Base.

They are making their home in San Antonio.

Daisy Blue Birds Camp At DePuy Ranch

Getting in one last fling before school starts were the Daisy Blue Birds who, with their sponsors, Mrs. Everett B. Vincent and Mrs. Sam Meyer, spent Friday and Saturday camping at the DePuy Ranch north of Hondo.

Swimming, hiking and outdoor cooking were indulged in by twelve members of the group. They were Suzanne Rath, Linda Sue Tondre, Anna Beth Eggen, Barbara Faye Clements, Ellen Owen, Luara Meyer, Katherine Marie Vincent, Rita Meyer, Mary Pope, Ruthie Crow, Peggy Grollmund and Beverly Witkind.

Guests were Mrs. Bob DePuy and Cindy, Mary Ruth Cameron, and Te Vincent.

School Picnic Held At Yancey

YANCEY—The annual school picnic was held on Labor Day with a large crowd attending.

As Moore is no longer with the school district, new officers had to be elected for the Parent-Teacher Association. They are Mrs. Philo Crain, president; Mrs. Roy Hartman, vice-president; Mrs. Rudolph Duncan, secretary; and Mrs. L. F. Faseler, treasurer.

A reception honoring the teachers will be given on Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 7:30 P.M. The P.T.A. will buy a new linoleum for the lunchroom floor.

The pep squad girls met with their sponsor, Mrs. Nathan Hines, to elect leaders for the coming year. Chosen were Jimmie Ruth Allen, majorette; Margaret Kempf, Lucille Wiemers and Joyce Tulloch, cheer leaders; Annette Nixon and Frances Faseler, snare drummers; and Dorothy Faseler, bass drummer.

Opening exercises for the picnic were held at the school auditorium. Rev. D. D. Hogan led in prayer, and Supt. Alvin Roberson made a talk and introduced the faculty. Rev. John Bohlin led the closing prayer.

Economy Group Meets Sept. 13

Members of the Texas Economy Commission have called an organizational meeting for Wednesday, September 13, to be held in Hondo. The meeting will be in the district courtroom and will start at 8 P. M.

Election of officers will be the first order of business, and discussions will be started to give suggestions to the state commission.

Governor Allen Shivers has appointed about 500 Texas citizens to serve on this commission, with the object of finding ways to cut down on the expense of Texas government, and at the same time maintain the essential services of the state.

Everyone who is interested in helping to reduce state expenses is invited to attend this meeting. Medina County members of the Texas Economy Commission are W. B. Melton of Yancey, and Bob Kollman and W. E. Berger of Hondo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hardy returned Tuesday morning from a weekend in Houston.

MRS. TILLEY SAYS CANE POLES ALL THAT GOOD FISHERMEN NEED

By Mrs. Joy Tilley
CORPUS CHRISTI — We have changed living quarters since we wrote last. The E. R. Littleton, M. B. Tilley and S. R. Malone families, and Mrs. M. E. DuBose who spent the time with us at Corpus Christi left Tuesday of last week. The Littletons and Tilleys returned to their respective homes. The Malone family and Mrs. DuBose continued their vacation with a trip to Abbeville, La., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Mason Holmes and family. Left to ourselves, we came over to our old stomping grounds at Aransas Pass.

One thing we missed in our rambling 'round in these parts was the migratory farm workers check up. More than 3,000 farm workers were halted by road patrols of the pink bollworm control division last week. Checking stations were set up in a number of towns. Patrols were stationed at these points and trucks, picking sacks and other equipment were checked. All seed cotton and green bolls were removed in an effort to prevent the spread of pink bollworm to other areas.

Nueces County's cotton crop early last week stood at 44,318 bales. Government cotton classing office which covers a large areas including the Coastal Bend and Rio Grande Valley passed the 192,000 mark this week. Daily receipts average around 1,500 bales.

We have learned a lot about fishing since we came to Aransas Pass. First thing there has been a shortage of live bait. Most all fishing has been done with table shrimp and cut bait. (Doesn't seem to be any grasshoppers or angle worms either). One thing I learned from experience and I would like to pass it on to fishermen's wives. When a man comes to the coast to fish, he has to have all the latest high powered salt water fishing gear. Now girls that is all a lot of foolishness and extra expense for nothing. We fished waist deep in the surf side by side with our husband. He had the salt water equipment we used the old three-time cane pole, hook line, and sinker. He caught nothing. We caught 'em faster than we could bait our hook — the breed was small, but the flavor was delicious.

Friday we were joined by some of our fishing friends from home, W. R. DuBose, Joe McCulloch and Preston DuBose. The first evening out they had live bait and came in with a long string. Joe said he landed them two at a time. Next morning he added the third hook to his line, and was disappointed when he failed to land them three at a whack. All in all they had a good trip and took plenty fish home with them Sunday afternoon.

Saturday night every available tourist cabin was filled by the holiday crowd. On Monday favorite fishing places were lined with fishermen all sizes, color, description and nationality. Everybody having a good time.

Organized labor put on an all-day program at Corpus Christi Labor Day. The program opened with a downtown parade and included entertainment at the Peoples Street T-head, addresses by two labor leaders, boat races, fireworks display, coronation of the queen and a square dance.

This is Tuesday, Sept. 5, school opening date. We notice Simon, George West, Three Rivers and Grogory, all have new buildings to begin the current school year. Aransas Pass' $170,000 elementary building will be ready for occupancy by Jan. 1, 1951.

We plan to "go" back to Devine the middle of the week. One thing that has helped us make up our mind to leave here is a headline in a local paper which says "More silent policemen to keep tabs on parkers." We haven't been "parking," but silent policemen are beyond our knowledge and gives us the jitters. So we will be seeing you.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Friends:

We want to thank you for sending us your fine paper as a wedding gift. We both thoroughly enjoy reading the news. It is like having a letter from home.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Muenink

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Richter, who were married Aug. 20, will now make their home at 410 E. Houston St., Luling, since Mr. Richter was transferred there with the telephone company.

Labor Day guests of the E. G. Popes were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mitchell of Camp Wood. Mrs. Mitchell is Mrs. Pope's sister. Dinner guests that evening in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gray, and the L. E. Pope family.

Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Raish and little daughters Karen and Sandra visited in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ulbrich and family.

Rio Medina, D'Hanis To Try Again Sunday

The Hondo Lions and Castroville Indians took first games in the Highway 90 League playoffs Sunday by beating Rio Medina and D'Hanis.

Bill Wood hurled the Lions to a 10-1 victory over Rio Medina as his team mates pounded out eleven hits. Castroville wound up on top of an 8-6 score with the D'Hanis Pirates after a see-saw scrap for five innings. The Indians rallied for three runs in the seventh for their victory margin.

The same clubs will meet in the second game Sunday with Castroville and Rio Medina as the host teams. Winners of the best two-out-of-three series will meet later for the League championship.

Devine, Shook Vote On Merger

The county board of trustees authorized an annexation election between Devine and Shook school districts. The election, called under the rural high school act, was set for Sept. 30, according to County Supt. C. F. Schweers.

A consolidation election was held in Moore and Pearsall last week, and the two districts approved consolidation. Moore was a part of the Yancey district last year, and after they broke away, voted against consolidating with Devine, 101-92. They approved the Pearsall consolidation by a 114-6 vote.

BOHMFALKS RETURN TO CALIFORNIA AFTER VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. August Bohmfalk of Hemet, Calif., have been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity during the past few weeks. Bohmfalk has a 10 acre apricot farm, and sold 42 tons of fruit early in August, after losing about a third of the potential crop in a spring freeze. He is pasturing cattle under the trees, and runs 19 head on the ten acres now, but his neighbors have as high as 45 head on seven acres of the irrigated pasture. During his visit to The Anvil Herald office, Bohmfalk contrasted that with the days when he ran from 20 to 50 head on 450 acres in this county. They sold their place in Medina County four years ago and moved to California, where several other members of their family are living.

They have visited here with Fritz Bohmfalk, Mrs. Amanda Ward, Mrs. Frank Ward, George Heiligman, Willie Faseler and several others. In San Antonio they stayed with Mrs. Lena Eckert and Mrs. Annie Vordenbaum, while in Freer they saw the Marvin Bohmfalks.

GLIMPSES AT THINGS THAT HAVE PASSED

And now we come to the most interesting of all among the Hoffmann-Paul relics — a fairly well preserved copy of a newspaper that is 95 years old.

It is a copy of the weekly edition of the San Antonio Ledger, bearing the date line: "Vol. V. San Antonio, Texas, Saturday, August 18, 1855, No. 37." M. Bourke was the proprietor and the subscription, "$3 A Year In Advance."

It is a five-column sheet, set in what appears to be Brevier, Minion and Nonpareil type, corresponding approximately to what is today known as 8-point and 6-point or even smaller. It is neatly and clearly printed throughout on a durable quality of paper and despite its extreme age, is readable throughout save where broken in the folds.

It is liberally patronized by advertisers, fourteen of its twenty closely packed columns being occupied by advertisements; all set in small type and with almost no attention paid to type display. The largest lines are set in about fourteen point, and there are few display lines.

Across the top of the front page is a faded penciled line referring to page 4 and a later inscription reading "Tschane's Certificate."

Turning to page four we find the key to who preserved the sheet and why, for at the bottom of the second to the last column in the paper we read:

Lost.

Certificate No. 19, for 640 acres of land issued by the Commissioner of Castroville Colony, April 3rd, 1850, to John Tschane, only heir of Vincent Tschane, deceased. If not found within the time prescribed by law, I shall apply to the proper authority for a duplicate.

John Hoffmann

Now wouldn't you like to know if the lost was ever found — and what became of Tschane and his 640 acres? But who would know? And could this John Tschane have been the progenitor of the present Sabinal Schanes? In those early days it was easy to lose a surplus letter from a name!

Not all the advertisements pertained to lands or litigation—though announcements of attorney's at law are numerous and of real estate agents and surveyors there are not a few — and nearly every want imaginable is sought to be filled by some one or many among the advertisers.

A striking feature of the advertisements is their variety and the fact that there seems to have been little system about classifying them for business, profession or location.

However, we do find, under a

The Seco Philosopher
J. A. TO MAKE APPLICATION FOR SELF-EMPLOYED BENEFITS

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has gotten wind of Social Security for farmers, and you can depend on him to try to qualify.

Dear editor:
I heard Social Security benefits was gonna be extended to practically everybody, farmers and other self-employed people included, such as barbers, merchants, etc., and I was in such a hurry to find out all the details I violated one of my basic principles and rushed into town and bought a newspaper, paid cash for it out of my own pocket, and took it home and read all I could find out about it.

As I understand it, it's true. The self-employed is gonna be included, and a man who runs his own business fifteen or twenty years and then goes busted can get retirement pay the same as the man who worked for him durin them years, and this seems fair to me, an employer probably ought to eat in his old age the same as an employee. Also, a farmer can even get it, although it sometimes don't take fifteen years for a farmer to find out he's busted, don't make no difference if some of em keep right on farmin anyway, busted or not.

Now I aim to apply for social security as soon as they get the forms printed, but first I would appreciate you findin out just how technical the government's gonna be on this "self-employed" business.

As a farmer, I'm naturally self-employed, but what I want to know is how strict is the government gonna be on defining self-employment? Say a man has a modern outlook, ain't no slave-driver, believes in fine labor-management relations, and has a tendency to be sort of easy with himself . . . is the government gonna be bureaucratic about this and go to checkin up on how much work he's been doin for himself?

If any such undertakin is likely, the whole program will blow up as far as I'm concerned. It's perfectly all right for the government to offer me retirement pay after I've spent a lifetime workin, but if it snoopin around inquirin into how much work that included, down to hours and profit, the thing ain't no better than what we got now. A self-employed man ain't no clock-puncher. A man workin for himself may apparently be dozin in the shade, but his brain may be racin. You don't have to be hunched over on a tractor seat necessarily to be workin, under my system.

Let's get a rulin on this before we go any further.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Mrs. Sadie Hutzler has returned from a month's visit to Washington, D. C. and New York City. While in New York she visited her son, Albert. Accompanied by her grandson, Albert Jr., she went to Montreal and Quebec.

Miss Mary Belle Gerdes returned home this past weekend from a week's vacation in historical New Orleans. Mary's cousin, Drucilla Franger, of San Antonio also visited New Orleans. The girls report an enjoyable trip and said they were awed by the beauty of Lake Ponchartrain. The Mississippi feeds the lake which has a huge naval air base on its shore.

Mary, Archie and Margie Gerdes, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Franger and Drucilla, recently made a trip to Port Aransas. While there they visited Padre Island and Corpus Christi and reported the new causeway from Corpus to the island to be a pretty drive.

The W. T. Hardys, and sons Billy and Jon spent three days in Houston visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Alin.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh
Squint's Drumming For Fair Play!
Squint Miller's mighty proud of the lot he owns that fronts on River Road—one of the prettiest spots around here.
He's been in a stew about it lately, though. Seems that trash-dumpers take one look at his property, stop their car or truck, and out goes a load of rubbish, spilling all over his place and the roadside, too. Wouldn't that make you mad?
Last night Squint dropped by the house. Over a friendly glass of beer, he tells me what he's done. "I put a couple of empty oil drums out there," he says, "with a big sign reading: 'If you must dump trash—use these—I like to keep my property clean!'"
From where I sit, Squint's sign should make any would-be roadside trash-dumpers pretty darned ashamed of themselves. Now and then some folks just have to be reminded that they ought to have as much regard for their neighbors' rights as they do for their own.

YOUR HEALTH

By George W. Cox,
State Health Officer

You wouldn't ordinarily consider a boxful of dead fleas as very much of a gift.

But entomological workers—specialists who study insects which spread disease—at the Texas State Department of Health, recently were "thrilled" by a gift of Pacific Northwest fleas from Dr. C. Andresen Hubbard, formerly head of the Biology Department at Pacific University in Oregon. He has made similar gifts, collected during a lifetime of studying disease spreaders, to 20 of the world's outstanding institutions in biological sciences.

State health officer George W. Cox, acknowledging the gift, said it was "something of a compliment" to be classed as a leader in biological studies along with the British Museum, Canada's National Museum, Brazil's Escola Nacional de Agronomia, the Parasitological Laboratory in Sevastopol, Russia, Pakistan's Malaria Institute, the American Museum of Natural History in New York, and "many others of equal prominence."

The Texas Health Department was the only health agency in the nation to benefit from the presentation. It's disease vector collection is reputedly one of the finest in the world. Dr. Cox says the entire assortment, including ticks and mites as well as fleas, is open to study by graduate and advanced undergraduate students in Texas colleges and universities.

Departmental entomological studies are described by Dr. Cox as a "determination of the specific types of insects of medical importance in the state, their distribution, seasonal abundance, and how they can best be controlled." Department entomologists conducted a two year investigation of typhus fever in Lavaca County in 1944-46. Step by step, they traced out the process by which rodent fleas spread typhus from rat to human beings.

In 1949, they finished a study which showed bubonic plague—the Black Death of the Middle Ages—was infecting wild rodents in four South Plains counties in West Texas.

"Our entomologists are disease detectives," Dr. Cox says. "The gift from Dr. Hubbard will help them run down insect culprits."

Washington MERRY GO ROUND

A-Bomb Plan Readied

THERE'S BEEN no change in the President's ban against A-bombing in the Korean war, but in order not to get caught unprepared, air force chiefs are working out all details for future use—just in case. They want to be able to retaliate 24 hours after Moscow makes the first aggressive move. This means that lists of main bombing targets and atomic bases for launching B-36's must be all set... chief reason for the navy's quiet current efficiency is the teamwork of Admiral Forrest Sherman and home-spun Secretary Matthews. Matthews picked Sherman as the liveliest admiral in the navy by reading the army-navy unification hearings. His judgment has been fully justified.

They pull together perfectly... Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine bowed out of the senate wire-tapping probe because she would have to sit in judgment on her fellow-senator from Maine, Owen Brewster. Since Brewster has been making noises about defeating her, Mrs. Smith decided she would be a prejudiced judge and excused herself.

HOLDBACK ON HOARDERS—

It was significant that when Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas of California proposed an amendment reinstating rent controls in cities where rents increased drastically, not one Republican voted for it. Her amendment was defeated. (Looks like the real estate lobby is still strong)... Credit Florida's Dwight Rogers with the crackdown amendment on hoarders which would send them to jail. The vote on this crossed party lines... Not crossing party lines, however, was the proposal for an immediate excess profits tax proposed by alert Congressman Walter Huber of Akron, O., Democrat. Pushed by Democratic Congressman Dan Flood of Wilkes Barre, Pa., and Mrs. Douglas, the amendment at first was adopted, then thrown out of the control bill. Most Republicans were opposed.

TEXAS POLITICS—

Young Maury Maverick (his father was the able congressman from Texas and ex-mayor of San Antonio) is now running for the Texas legislature in a race which sets a record for gall. Maverick Jr., is opposed by Frates S. Seeligson, aged 24, scion of one of the wealthiest oil families in Texas. The other day, Seeligson Sr., came to Maverick Sr., and urged that young Maverick withdraw from the race. "My boy is wealthy and therefore will be an honest legislator," said the elder Seeligson. "Furthermore your boy will be drafted and my boy won't."

Young Maverick refused to budge. He has already served four years in the marines in the South Pacific and will serve again if needed... Meanwhile the Seeligson family is spending an estimated $25,000 to elect its scion, though a lot of veterans are chipping in voluntarily to help young Maverick.

ASIATIC U.N. PRESIDENT—

General MacArthur has sent Philippine general Carlos Romulo, now president of the United Nations assembly, a cable addressed "Dear Carlos" which states: "We all watched with so much pride and enthusiasm your great efforts of the past two years in the fields of diplomacy and statesmanship. But now the guns have begun to speak. While I know it cannot be, I would feel a sense of comfort to have you at my right hand again..." This should further clinch the idea of having Gen. Romulo go to Korea as part of the U.N. command in order to make Asiatics realize ours is not a white man's imperialistic invasion. Unfortunately this Moscow line is believed in much of the orient.

UNDER THE DOME—Mystery?

Who put the pressure on Congressman Celler of New York to induce him to call off his long-proposed investigation of Pan American World Airways?... Out in Illinois, so many Republicans are fed up with the Chicago Tribune's harpooning of the war effort, that they are forming Republican clubs to re-elect Sen. Scott Lucas, Democrat... If Washington really wanted to show an all-out war effort it would curtail the fancy, plush planes reserved for cabinet officers, the top brass and other VIP's. Most people have forgotten that in War II, Harry Hopkins, Averell Harriman and other dignitaries hopped the Atlantic in bucket seats or in the bomb bay of bombers. FD himself had no special plane until near the war's end.

SERVANTS OF BROTHERHOOD

Credit the Greenville, S.C., Lions Club with doing a fine job of campaigning against hoarding—and getting results... One of the great police chiefs of the U.S.A.—Gen. William Horton of the U.S. marines, retired—is quitting as head of the Los Angeles police. Old-fashioned civil service rules are the reason. (He didn't work from the bottom up.) And the city could only appoint him temporarily... Penny-pinching senators recently lopped off the state department's propaganda budget.

GIRL!

"John got the cab, while Mother packed. Within minutes we were off!"

It was a busy week for Mr. and Mrs. John Bowman of Independence, Missouri—the week that young Linda Marie joined them.

Busy week, too, for the Bowman telephone. As Mrs. Bowman reports, "We use the telephone a lot from day to day, but we never stopped to think how helpful it really is, until we kept a record of calls. We averaged our bill—and were really surprised at the low cost—about 2¢ a local call!"

Telephone service has grown steadily in the part it plays in our daily lives—and in the value it delivers. Most folks agree it's the best buy in their budget! Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

What else gives so much for so little?

"A half hour later John called home to say that 'Junior' turned out to be a girl!"

"Mother called everyone we knew, as soon as they were up. Karen and Sharon, our other daughters, were trying to get in their two cents worth, too, of course."

"John and Mother kept our telephone record for me. I'm finishing it now. Reading it back makes me realize how much we depend on our telephone—and how little it costs!"

Vary Your Vegetables

VEGETABLES appear on the menu so often, homemakers often find themselves at a loss as to how variety may be introduced in their service.

If you're doing some baking, why not bake the vegetable, too? If your menu plans include a meal prepared on top of the range, why not pan-fry the vegetables, or make a sauce to add sparkle to them?

Sauces do excellent things to vegetables which you've been used to serving in the same, old, boiled way with just salt and pepper as seasonings.

Then, too, there are combinations of vegetables that can be pleasing. Like lima beans with corn, carrots and parsnips, green pepper and onions with limas and zucchini squash with tomatoes.

Vegetables can be varied simply by their treatment: carrots in timbales, potatoes in pancakes, molded asparagus.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ziegenbalg have returned home following a thirty-day trip to Wisconsin, Chicago and Indiana. They visited a daughter in Wisconsin, who reported a frost which froze some of the corn. They visited a big packing plant in Chicago.

You can't make a good hand out of a heel.

He didn't seem the least bit disturbed when I asked him if he and the other window washers of Manhattan ever feel afraid as they hang precariously by slender straps, hundreds of feet above the hard pavements. They had steeled themselves just not to think of the great height at which they worked, he said. I knew it took a lot of them to keep the thousands of skyscraper windows clean, but I didn't realize until he told me, that there are 1,200 window washers in New York. They are paid $2.00 an hour — and last year, 11 of them fell from buildings, never to return.

There is a touch of the old days in the country at a little store on the lowest floor of the Chrysler Building. It is appropriately named Angler's Roost and is devoted to the needs of the folks who like to vacation with the rod and reel — or with simply a pole and a fish hook. In its windows are all sorts of fishing equipment and here and there are pictures of quiet, cool-looking fishing holes along the banks of lazy creeks. Many a bored Gothamite pauses at this window and dreams of boyhood days, wishing he could live them over again.

Doing a little checking, I have found that this city can lay claim to another dubious distinction. New York has more known Communists than any other city and the state holds this same priority over the other 47 — there being 25,000 Communists in New York. This is natural if regrettable, since through New York Harbor pass the most undesirable Europeans in the world. People who live in the hinterland of the United States are sometimes branded isolationists for squawking about our large immigration from foreign lands. But these present days leave no doubt that our immigration should be restricted — at least to those who will make good citizens.

I was riding in a taxi and chanced to look at the name of the driver on the card in front of me. It was Shevket Ali and I asked him if he were Turkish, to which he proudly responded in the affirmative. "Yes, I'm proud of my native country," he went on, as New York taxi drivers invariably do, once you get them started. "You see, Turkey is furnishing 4,500 ground troops for the fighting in Korea, while some other countries such as France who have got a lot of aid from the Marshall Plan, etc., are hardly doing anything. We Turks believe in showing our appreciation in acts — not just in words!"

It's hard to believe but it's true. A chain of local book stores have for sale one of the strangest items I ever saw. It is a thing called "Silly Putty" — and most fittingly named. The stuff looks about like ordinary putty but the clerk claimed it would, if placed properly, pick up the pictures from colored comic pages; if hit with a hammer it would break into many interesting pieces; and if left alone, would settle into a harmless puddle on the floor.

The cat sat amidst the milling crowds of Grand Central Station and looked around her in calm contemplation. Surely no self-respecting cats ever acted with such inane antics as these scurrying, anxious humans. From where she sat — I imagined — this out-of-place feline must have regarded the procession of man and his daily habits with a cynical eye. Some shuffled, some almost galloped, some threw cigarettes away nervously and others dashed down belated breakfasts at the nearby lunch stands with a rush that must have meant certain indigestion. Why do people act like that? The cat might have asked herself. Do people work to live or live to work? The dense crowd, endless and fast-moving toward the beginning of the working day held no answer. The cat closed one eye, licked her chops and then shook her head as she moved very slowly away.

They thought he was so kind to send his wife away for a rest, until he said: "Goodness knows I needed it!"

Nationwide Proving Ground Demonstrates FAMED ECONOMY of FORD TRUCKS

Houston, Tex. Owner M. L. Boyd has entered his sturdy Ford F-3 Platform Stake in Ford's country-wide Economy Run. He says its performance and economy continue to amaze him!

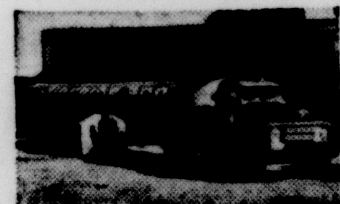

Gigantic Ford Economy Run shows what Ford Truck owners have known all along—Ford operation is amazingly thrifty.

Every model of the famous Ford Truck line is entered in Ford's gigantic, 48-state Economy Run. Every type of job and occupation all across the nation is represented.

All four of Ford's great truck engines—the 95-h.p. and the 110-h.p. Sixes, the 100-h.p. and 145-h.p. V-8's—are now demonstrating what most truck owners have found out for fact—a Ford Truck engine uses less gas to give you the power you need for your job.

On-the-Job Proof! This amazing Economy Run started July 1 and will run to December 31, 1950. Thousands of Ford Truck owners are keeping authentic day-to-day records of gas and oil consumption, of repairs and maintenance—of miles travelled, of loads hauled. The result—the most comprehensive demonstration of operating economy in truck history.

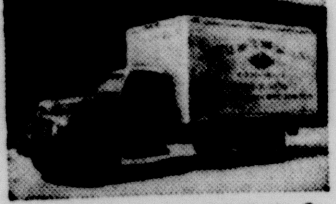

Get in on that money-saving Ford Truck economy now! Your Ford Dealer will show you how a Ford Truck will save money on your job. See him today!

Los Mochas, Ia. Carl Nisley, Superior Oil Co., states that these Ford F-4 tank-trailers big jobs average six miles per gallon under heavy load. No repair expenses since they were bought.

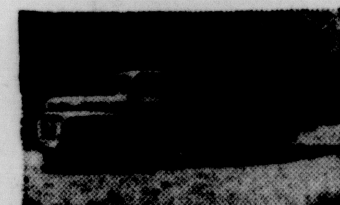

Houston, Tex. Russell B. Brient of Nursery Service Co. has used Ford Trucks since 1920. This is one of his F-5 Dumps. He says he's found them more economical than any other truck in their price field.

Alexandria, Va. The Metal Distributing Co., Inc., of Alexandria, places this Ford F-7 in the Economy Run, too. He says it's in a class by itself for day and night dependability and economy.

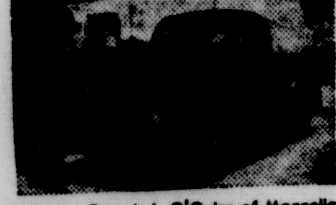

Boat Point, Ga. Walter C. Joanos of Armas Drainage and Metal Products, Inc., in his Ford F-6 Tanker-trailer. He states he's more than willing to show his Ford's economy!

Myrtleville, Md. Ernest Meier, Inc., poses midway in a hauling job to show their fine, economy-minded Ford F-5 under load. The records kept will prove the economy of this Ford model.

Port Huron, Mich. Both driver and owner stand beside the Ford F-3 Platform job of the Wilbert Burtel Vash Company. Ford's Economy Run is covering every truck-using occupation!

Houston, Tex. A. L. O'Quinn of Magnolia Service has entered his Ford F-1 Pickup in the Economy Run, too. He says it's in a class by itself for day and night dependability and economy.

BENTSEN Reports From Washington

WASHINGTON — The Senate Armed Services committee has reported out S 4029, authorizing the drafting of doctors and dentists into the armed services.

This bill would authorize registration of "medical and allied specialties" through the age of 55 years, "dental and allied specialties."

GI FAMILY BENEFITS

Enlisted soldiers, sailors and airmen's departments will receive extra money during the Korean war under the terms of a bill the House has passed.

Here's what the House bill calls for on rates:

M/ Sgt.	$70	$70	$85
S/FC	$70	$70	$85
Sgt.	$70	$70	$85
Cpl.	$70	$70	$85
Pfc.	$45	$70	$85
Pvt.	$45	$70	$85
Ret.	$45	$70	$85

The Senate has also passed a dependent's pay bill. Differences are to be settled in a conference between the two houses.

APPROPRIATIONS

A total of $36.1 billion was included in the omnibus appropriation bill, HR 7786, whose conference report the House passed last week. Shortly after the House approved the $17 billion emergency supplemental spending bill.

Chairman Cannon of the House Appropriation committee said the two bills would raise federal spending for fiscal 1951 to a possible $59.5 million.

SLOT MACHINES

The House approved a bill to ban interstate shipment of slot machines and pay-off pinball machines. Your representative voted for the bill.

Interstate shipment of such machines will carry a penalty of up to $5,000 in a fine and/or up to two years in jail. There are some exceptions. These machines can be shipped into states where their use is legal. The Senate adopted a similar bill.

FALCON DAM

At long last there's a date set for opening of the construction bid on Falcon Dam. Commissioner L. M. Lawson of the International Boundary and Water Commission told me the plans and specifications for the dam will be issued on or about September 15. Bids will be opened on or about October 30, he said.

Guard Has Made Good Progress

Local Heavy Mortar Co. Was Organized In 1947, Strength Is Now 45 Men

Other National Guard units in South Texas might be older, but none has showed any more enthusiasm than Heavy Mortar Co., 141st Infantry Regt., of Hondo.

The company is now just in its infancy, having been organized in late 1947, but it has hung up records at its three summer training camps which could not be equalled by the older units.

The Hondo Guard had its beginning in October, 1947 when Col. Edward D. McCall made a visit to Hondo to activate an anti-tank company. He conferred with Allan Webster, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and the City of Hondo, and found that they wanted a company. Charles Lee accepted a commission as second lieutenant, and handled correspondence to get the organization started. The NGB letter of approval came on Nov. 4, 1947.

Lt. O. L. Moss finished the organization as company commander when Lt. Lee left Hondo. David E. Williams was appointed a lieutenant at that time. Col. McCall made several visits to Hondo, and the city gave the Guard 13 acres of land at the airfield for an armory.

The unit was federally recognized on Feb. 13, 1948, and had 10 enlisted men and two officers. The strength was later increased to 28 enlisted men. Two tanks were received by the unit, but were not unloaded because the company was to be changed in November, 1948 to a heavy mortar company. On Feb. 1, 1949, Richard E. Schneider was appointed captain in the Guard and assumed command of the company.

The company made its first summer encampment in August, 1948, as an anti-tank company with 22 enlisted men and 1 officer attending.

After the change to a heavy mortar company, training progressed as rapidly as possible with the new weapon assigned the group, the 4.2 mortar. This was made more difficult because no 4.2 mortars were received until June, 1949, when the company was given two. In addition, no one in the unit was familiar with the weapon, making training slow and arduous.

The unit attended its second annual summer camp at North Camp Hood during the period of June 5-19, 1949 with 3 officers and 19 enlisted men present. Progress was made in training by the use of instructors from other units who were familiar with the mortar, although the unit was not able to fire their weapon due to faulty ammunition.

After their return to Hondo, improvements were made in the armory. A new and larger supply room was added, the strong room was completely rebuilt and moved, and a locker room with lockers for 40 men was built to take care of the anticipated increase in company strength. Work was done by Guard personnel in their spare time without compensation. Money for the remodeling was raised by a turkey raffle.

On Nov. 17, 1949 the unit was called out by the company commander to assist local authorities to search for a missing hunter on the Rothe Ranch north of D'Hanis, and were instrumental in finding the man the next day. For their work during the local emergency, the men of the company received an official commendation from Maj. Gen. Miller Ainsworth, commanding general, and Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, adjutant general, of the 36th Division.

At the end of 1949 the unit strength was 4 officers and 28 enlisted men. In January, 1950 the company commander, Capt. R. E. Schneider left for a three-month course at Fort Benning, Ga., followed shortly by Sgt. Nathaniel Burnett.

In February, the annual armory inspection was held and the company received a rating of unsatisfactory, due to the low strength of the company. The administration and training were rated excellent.

The company was informed at that time that it must reach a strength of 53 enlisted men by June 1, or the unit would be moved from Hondo. Local civic clubs and organizations immediately realized what this would mean to Hondo and went to work to help recruit new men into the unit. Largely through their efforts, the unit was built up to a strength of 6 officers and 48 enlisted men by the end of June.

With the return of Capt. Schneider and Sgt. Burnett from service schools, the training of the company immediately jumped forward as these two men brought back the knowledge needed so badly by the unit. The efforts and instruction by these two men were instrumental in the unit's high rating while at summer camp this year.

At present the company has a strength of 5 officers, 1 warrant officer and 45 enlisted men. It is well-equipped and regularly receives additional needed equipment and supplies.

In order to operate smoothly and efficiently at least ten more men are needed in the company; however the unit is authorized to enlist a total of 121 EM.

Jr., and Pfc. Milton J. Ormond qualified as marksmen, and Rec. Billy Smith, Pfc. Billy Timberlake and Sgt. Donald L. Tschirhart qualified as sharpshooters.

The Hondo company, made up of 39 enlisted men and 5 officers, left in motor convoy Sunday, Aug. 20, to join other units of the San Antonio National Guard. They arrived at North Fort Hood at 3:30 P.M.

Training started Monday afternoon and ran through until Friday afternoon. Training days were from 7 A.M. to 5 P.M. with a two-hour break for lunch.

The first few days of training consisted of individual tactical training, gun drill and conduct of fire for the 4.2 mortar platoons. The company fired its first rounds of mortar ammunition Friday afternoon, seeing the capabilities of the weapon. A total of 150 rounds of 60 mm. shells were fired in the company's sub-caliber device. The Fourth Army inspection team rated the group superior on their work.

On Saturday, the company marched in review along with other units of the 36th Division for Gov. Allan Shivers and other high-ranking officers of the army.

On Wednesday of the second week, the company demonstrated the firing power of one platoon of heavy mortars to all personnel of the 141st Regiment, made up of approximately 1,000 Guardsmen.

The remainder of the week was spent in tactical problems in the field. These consisted of the company in the attack and on defense. The entire regiment bivouaced in the field on a defensive problem Friday night. The regiment was attacked by an "aggressor" force, and the group teamed together to repulse the attack.

Guardsmen were paid for their two-weeks on Friday. They returned to Hondo Sunday, Sept. 3, arriving at 4:30 P.M.

PREPARING FOR CAMP--Getting ready for the summer training camp are Sgt. First Class Jesus Lopez Jr., Pfc. Lorenzo Garcia and Pfc. Jose Ramirez. They are working on a 2½ ton truck.

Col. Edward D. McCall, regimental commander of the 141st Infantry, was instrumental in obtaining a Guard unit for Hondo. He made the preliminary arrangements with the Chamber of Commerce and City of Hondo in 1947 which ultimately resulted in the organization of the local unit.

COMMUNICATION SECTION--A vital part of a heavy mortar company's makeup is its communication section. Shown above are Pfc. Milton Ormond, Rec. Hugo Saathoff Jr., and Pfc. Billy Timberlake.

column headed "Hotels" — and printed in old English text of about 12-point — and sandwiched in between an announcement of "Bexar Eychange" (and here we found our first typographical error, note the y where it should be x), presumably located in San Antonio, and an announcement of the Gayoso House of Gonzales, this announcement:

Castroville Hotel.

C. V. Tarde is now prepared to accommodate travelers at Castroville, and he solicits a continuance of the liberal patronage which he has hitherto received. Stable and good provender on the premises. 33tf.

Mr. Tarde must have been prosperous, and paid his bills promptly; for "tf" after a classified means the advertiser rates as a good credit risk with the printer!

He was a Frenchman, and if we have been correctly informed, brought the plan for his hostelry with him from France and erected it himself. The main building a two story of French design, still stands, with a few alterations, and is the home of Bernard Fitz-Simon and family.

Just when Mr. Tarde opened for business or how long he operated, we are not informed. But it is told that his place was popular with members of the legal profession who attended the court sessions there when Castroville was the county seat. It was also said to have been favorably known for its accommodations by travelers frequenting the stage-coach route from San Antonio to points in Mexico and California via Eagle Pass and El Paso.

Neither do we know when the property passed out of Mr. Tarde's hands and whether the new occupants continued to operate it as a hotel.

The Vance House in the meantime built up a favorable patronage.

But the coming of the railroad in 1881 and the loss of the county seat in 1892, destroying the business of freighting and stage-coaching as well as removing the occasion of the lawyers' visits, put a quietus on the hotel business.

In the meantime, the building was occupied for some time as a residence by the widow of Hal Gosling and their two sons, following the tragic death of the husband and father in 1884. Later, they moved to San Antonio, where the sons achieved success in business but both have since died, being out-lived by their aged mother who still resides in San Antonio.

When the writer came to Castroville in 1896, Prof. John G. Hall and family resided there, but some time between the late 1898 and early 1899, Dr. J. T. FitzSimon purchased the property and ownership has since vested in his family.

Unique and interesting as are the advertisements, we must leave them to consider the general make-up of the paper which, for the same reasons, is equally intriguing.

Though a weekly newspaper, the first column on the front page is devoted to poetry.

The top half of the next two columns is devoted to a tabulation of election returns of Bexar County, which seemed at the time to include every thing around San Antonio from Atascosa to San Saba and from Seguin to Eagle Pass.

There were two tickets then, the Democratic and the Know-Nothing, with a bunch of candidates seeking office through each party, though for what office is not disclosed. The Know-Nothings made a rather poor showing as compared with the Democrats, the largest number polled by the former being 567 to 2079 for the top among the latter. Even then a Maverick was in politics, polling 1556 votes on the Democratic ticket.

In an editorial comment following the table, the editor evinces satisfaction over the triumph of the Democrats. Other election news notes election rioting in Kentucky and the election of Democratic candidate Johnson (no doubt Andrew) in Tennessee.

A comment laments that: "Before Sevastopol, the Allies are reported to have made but little progress, and the general condition of affairs is reported unchanged." Then the last or fifth column on the page is given almost entirely to a reprint from the London Times of an article telling of the clever defense tactics of the Russians in their defense of beleaguered Sevastopol. They are still smart!

Could that have been the same James Vance who later erected the building, now known as Land Mark Inn, in Castroville?

And so, as we began, we close with a quest for another story!

Thinking of the Long Pull?

Better Buy Buick!

If that car of yours has put its best days behind it, there's no time like right now to think about starting out afresh with a taut, new, up-to-the-minute motorcar with all its mileage still in it.

And there's no better place in the world to start than with the beauty pictured here, for a variety of reasons.

For one thing, this Buick SPECIAL is a quick-stepping Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight that's priced lower than some sixes.

For another, it's built with typical Buick ruggedness through and through — a husky that can take a lot of years without crying "Uncle!"

Then, too—this high-styled beauty is proving to be one of the most economical Buicks ever built—easy on gas, easy on upkeep, easy on you in its soft, floating, light-handling comfort.

It even comes with Dynaflo Drive* if you like—and Dynaflo means that you will never have to service or replace a friction clutch, and that rear-end or transmission servicing—even engine upkeep—are cut to a minimum.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Of course, you can't see all of this in the brief span of a trial drive.

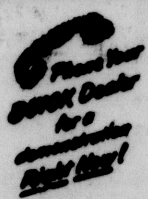

But you can experience the good solid feel of Buick strength beneath you. You can satisfy yourself on the lightness of the controls, the utter smoothness of Dynaflo, the quick surge of Buick's Fireball power.

All such things will tell you that this is a car you'll be glad to live with for a long time to come—and you need only to ask your Buick dealer for a demonstration to see precisely what we mean.

Why not call on him soon to talk about signing up?

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.
